Material for Depot and Bridge on the Ground. Work Starts Today.

After thirty years of struggles, BEAVER has at last secured her long-dreamed-of RAILROAD. The Beaver Short Line (B. M. & E.) reached the townsite Wednesday noon.

The road has been completed to the north side of the river and side tracks put in to accommodate shippers. Cars of wheat and broomcorn are being loaded out today, buyers having opened up the market this week. Both freight and passenger traffic has been established. The first passenger train was run Monday, an excursion party being brought down from Forgan to attend the ball game. The Carter Tracy Hardware Company enjoy the distinction of having received the first carload of freight over the new road the same being a car of cement for their new building, purchased through the Paul Light Lumber Company.

The depot material is on the ground and construction work will commence today. The bridge material is also here and Bridge Builder Harvey will put his force to work on the bridge across the Beaver river, Monday.

The history of Beaver's railroad getting is a long, troubled one, one with which most of our people are familiar. We do not care to reiterate the story and we have forgotten all the disagreeable incidents, but we do want to speak again of the loyal work of the citizens of Beaver and the farmers of the surrounding country, who assisted them. Many of these men have been on the job for years and have spared neither time nor money to secure the road. It is to these that we owe our deepest thanks and appreciation for without their persistent, tireless efforts we would never have secured the road. In our zeal and enthusiasm over the greater possibilities of the New Beaver let us not then forget our benefactors. To those who have admonished and criticised the HERALD in times past because we assured our readers that Beaver would get her railroad, we wish to say, come in now, you knockers and pessimists, and let us "show you" and prove the truth of our assertions.

The road will be completed to the terminal well within the time specified and, when it is finally completed and the official First Train arrives in Beaver, there is going to be something doing in the old town. We hope to have a celebration such as was never had before in all the land, so make ready the fatted calf, the roast pig, the turkeys, chickens and other good things to eat, and be ready when the signal is given, "ALL ABOARD FOR BEAVER."
